Principal Teacher Primary (Cluster/3-18 Grouping) – Guidance Note

The post holder will not be part of the Senior Management Team and will not formally deputise for the Head Teacher. He or she will however be the promoted member of staff on site.

The duties and responsibilities of a Principal Teacher Primary (Cluster/3-18 Grouping) will be quite distinct from a Head Teacher or Depute Head Teacher. The post holder will work with the Head Teacher and/or Depute Head Teacher to promote collegiate working across the cluster or 3-18 grouping (primary).

The post will be paid on scale point 2 of the Principal Teacher scale and will have 0.2 fte management time. The Head Teacher will ensure management responsibilities contained in the job specification are capable of being carried out within the allocated 0.2 management time.

The remit of the post will be agreed by the Head Teacher and will be detailed in the job specification at the time of job sizing. Allocated areas of responsibility could include –

- lead and manage allocated staff
- assist with recruitment of staff
- manage and quality assure allocated curricular areas such as numeracy or literacy across the cluster/3-18 grouping
- manage assigned resources in accordance with school policy
