

Education Services

COLLEGIALITY IN SCHOOLS

The LNCT resolves that proposed changes in the following matters which substantially affect teacher workload, working hours or stress in teaching should be consulted upon by Headteachers well in advance:

- Working hours – start and finish times
- Length of periods / time allocation for visiting specialists
- The system of classroom observations
- Pupil discipline system
- New social education courses
- Reporting system
- Planning formats
- Timing, length of interviews and duration of parents evenings
- Assessment and recording systems
- School and departmental improvement plans
- School Working Time Agreements (following the specific provisions in the LNCT 35 Hour Week – Framework Agreement Section 2.3)

The list is illustrative and not exhaustive.

Agreed by LNCT on 7 October 2014

S:\Schools Central\Committees\Local Negotiating Comm for Teachers\LNCT Agreements\Collegiality in Schools 2015.docx