5 October 2005

Dear Colleague

Application of SNCT/26 to Teachers Retiring from Service

In the advice issued by Joint Secretaries on 6 October 2004 councils were advised that they could use provisions within the Scheme of Salaries and Conditions of Service for Teaching Staff to pay teachers retiring in August 2004 for the full holiday period provided certain criteria were met.

That letter clearly stated that this was an interim arrangement and that the matter would be referred to the appropriate SNCT working group to be resolved. It is likely that recommendation will be made to SNCT at its next meeting and, if the recommendation is accepted, the matter would be resolved for future years.

Councils should consider this letter as confirmation that the arrangements put in place last year should be applied for teachers who retired at August 2005.

For ease of reference the advice letter of 6 October 2004 is attached.

Yours sincerely

Lynne Dickson (Employers' Side)
Drew Morrice (Teachers' Panel)
Stephanie Walsh (Scottish Executive)

6 October 2004

Dear Colleague

Application of SNCT/26 to Teachers Leaving Teaching Service or Retiring

The Joint Secretaries have been asked to provide advice on the calculation of leave on termination of employment, specifically where a teacher retires.

SNCT/26 states that leave will accrue on the basis of .338 of a day for each day worked and that on termination of employment a calculation should be done to work out the difference between leave earned against leave taken. This may result in a requirement to pay the teacher for excess leave earned or to make a recovery of pay where the teacher has used more leave than they have earned.

Since the leave year runs from 1 September, teachers who leave work with effect from the end of the school summer holiday are likely to see a reduction in the amount of payment for holidays they will receive. This reduction will be the difference between leave earned up to the end of the holiday period and the end of the leave year. This difference in the leave year and salary year is causing other anomalies in terms of accrual of leave and payment for leave.

However, in the case of a teacher leaving teaching service or retiring the paragraphs numbered 11.6.3 and 11.6.4 within the Scheme of Salaries and Conditions of Service for Teaching Staff are still extant. These provisions will continue to enable the employer to pay a teacher leaving or retiring in August 2004 for the full holiday period provided the criteria set out in 11.6.3 and 11.6.4 are met.

The joint secretaries cannot change current arrangements but can simply provide advice based on what is place, however, the joint secretaries will raise the issues around accrual of and payment for leave with the appropriate SNCT working group in the first instance.

Yours sincerely

Lynne Dickson (Employers' Side)
Drew Morrice (Teachers' Panel)
Stephanie Walsh (Scottish Executive)
